Dear Richard

I hope you are keeping well.

Further to our recent meeting, please find attached our proposal outlining how British Enrolment Partners (BEP) could support Bede's School in enhancing its international recruitment activity. It was a pleasure learning more about your international ambitions, and we believe BEP can provide additional strategic support and market expertise to complement your existing international recruitment function.

I look forward to hearing your thoughts and would be delighted to discuss the proposal further at your convenience.

Kindest regards

John

Dear Richard

I hope this email finds you well.

Thanks for confirming your availability to meet at 10:00am tomorrow.

We are looking forward to the opportunity to introduce British Enrolment Partners (BEP) and importantly, learn about Bede's international student recruitment objectives and priorities, and to explore how we may be able to support your future enrolment strategy.

Would it be possible to meet via Microsoft Teams? If that's convenient, I would be delighted to send across a meeting invitation.

Kindest regards

John
